

Can you color the different stages of corn?

When corn is planted, it is a pale yellow or tan color.

Once the plant grows, the tall stalk and leaves are green, and the ears of corn are golden yellow.

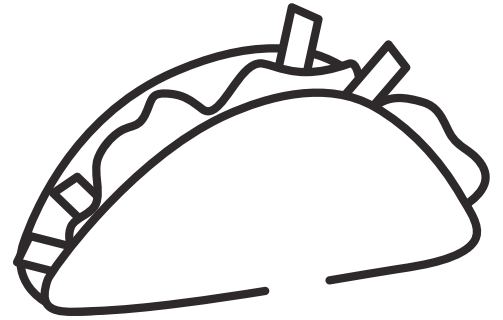

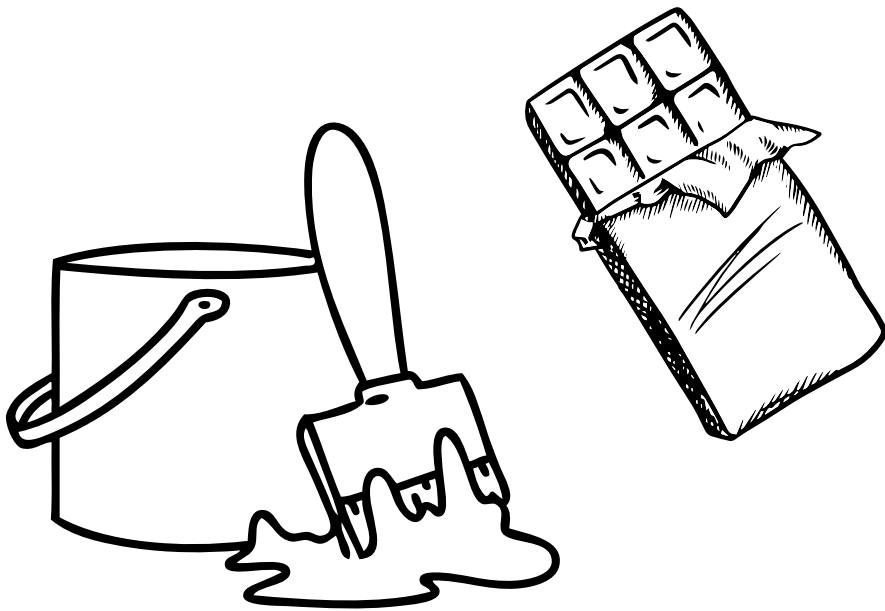

Corn gets made into all kinds of items that we use every day. One of the big ones is fuel for cars and trucks!

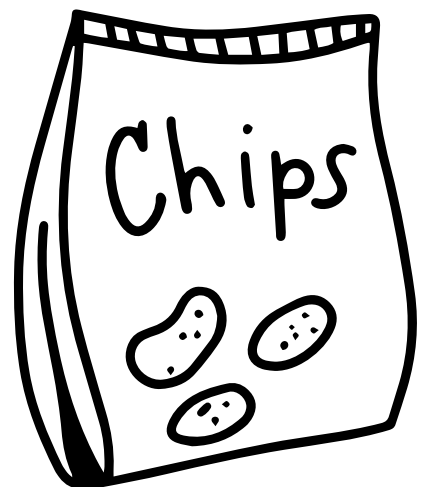

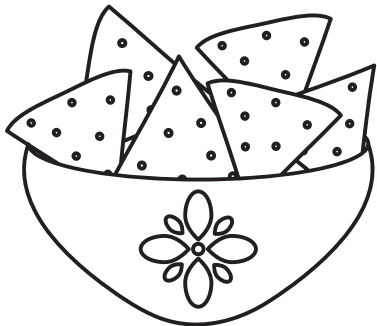

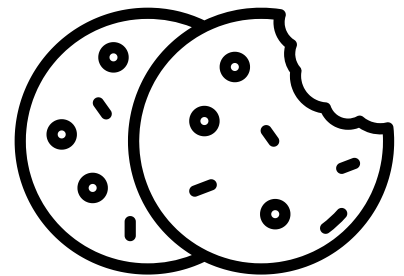

This is a corn plant. They can grow about 8-10 ft tall. Each plant contains EARS of corn, which are made up of small, yellow kernels.

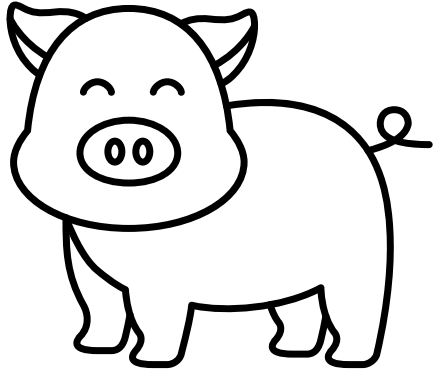

How many ears are on this corn plant? _____

Corn ingredients can be found in many different products that we use every day!
Which one is your favorite?

What kinds of animals eat corn in their diet?

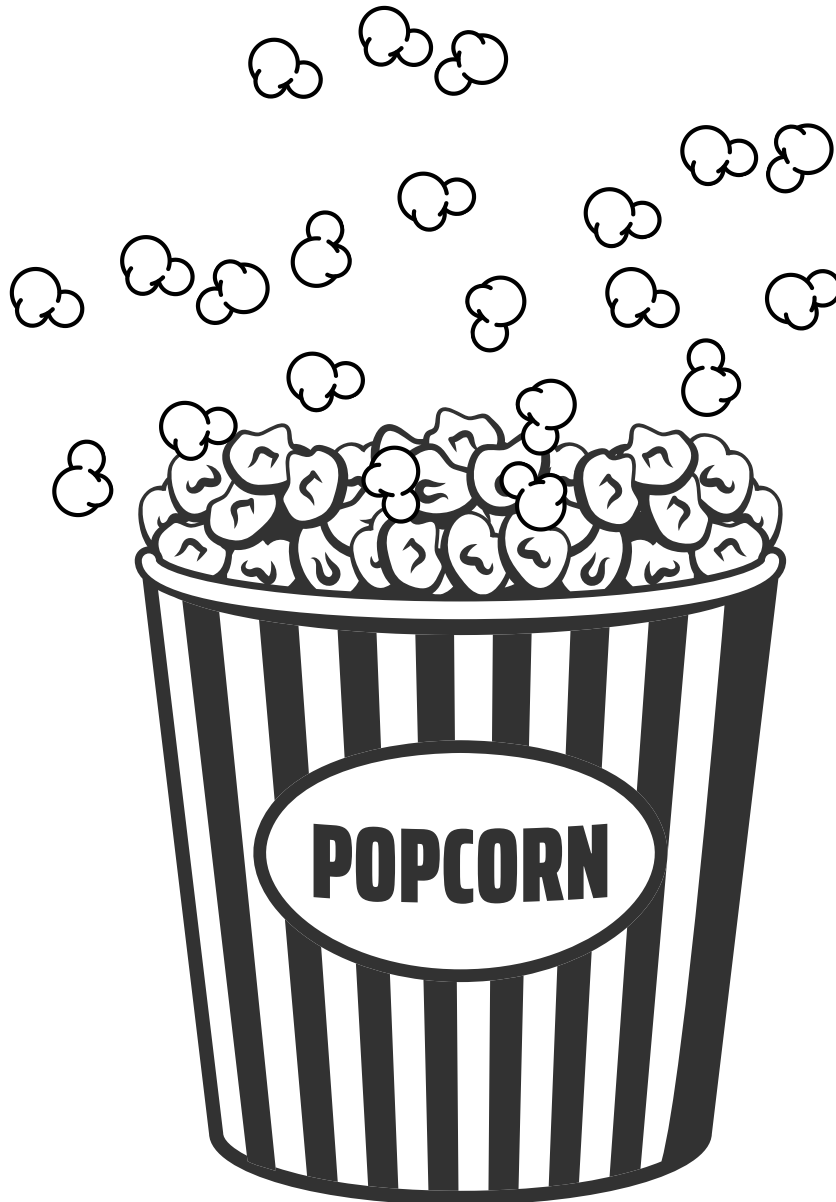

Pigs can eat up to 7 pounds of corn in one day!

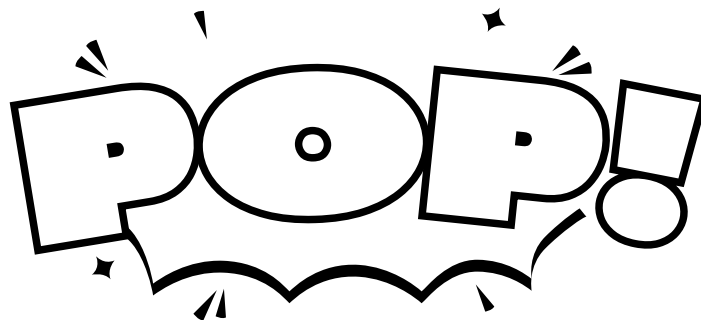

Corn is a great energy source in cattle diets.

Chickens and Turkeys love corn too!

POPCORN is a special type of corn that keeps water inside the kernel. When the kernel is heated up, the pressure inside causes the

and the inside becomes hot and fluffy.